Art Unit: 1724

1. Claims 1-3 and 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims appear to be a direct translation and are unclear as to the structure recited as well as containing numerous instances of vague and indefinite language, such as "such as," "or the like" and "preferably." The claims should be rewritten to recite a complete and definite structure, with the various elements clearly related to each other and not requiring reference to the drawings.

2. The specification should have section headings added.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-3 and 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Japanese publication 1-123609.

The Japanese patent appears to disclose a scraper for a clarifier having scraper bars with extensions that are controlled by a roller, which obviously forms a counterweight, as claimed. A translation of the Japanese patent has been ordered, and a copy will be provided in the next office action.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Other references of interest include Workman, Casper and Tuomikoski. In particular, Roddy discloses a scraper having extension bars which are controlled by a spring (figures 8 and 9).

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Christopher Upton whose telephone number is 571-272-1169. The examiner can normally be reached on 7:30-5:00, off every other Monday.
